

Reflection for Lawns Module

In the Lawns module, we learned that the amount of maintenance required is partially based on our quality expectations.

If you currently maintain a lawn or have in the past, have your expectations for your lawn changed based on what you learned? Will you change any practices to better fit your expectations?